

THE JOURNEY OF AWARENESS THROUGH THE POWER OF PICTURE

With Jen Murphy

ARRIVE IN THIS SPACE

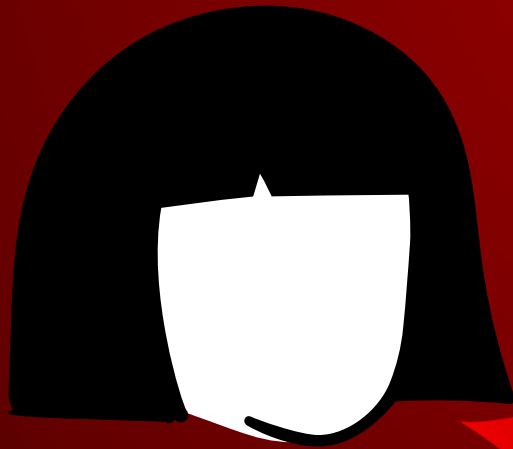

TRIGGER WARNING.

TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF, STAND UP, TAKE BREAKS AND IF YOU NEED TO TALK TO SOMEONE, LET US KNOW.

I USED TO START THIS OUT WITH JERMAIN CHARLO'S DISAPPEARANCE.. BUT AFTER REFLECTION AND GROWTH, IT STARTED LONG BEFORE THAT...

LEARNING THROUGH HUMILITY – BILLBOARDS

MARCH 23, 2021

How Many
Must Go Missing,
Until You Start to Listen

A billboard for the MMIW Project. On the left, a woman in traditional Indigenous dress, including a yellow tunic and a beaded necklace, stands against a background of a lake and mountains. The text on the billboard reads: "I will dance for our Missing People until ALL of them are home." Below this, it says "May 5 #MMIW #MMIP @mmiwproject.org". At the bottom, it lists "Tveraa Photography" and "MMIWProject.org". The billboard is mounted on a metal structure with a "LAMAR" sign.

I will dance for our Missing People until ALL of them are home.
