Question Guidelines:

- *Are the questions authentic? We ask questions for what we truly do not have the answer to and genuinely want to know.
- *Is the vocabulary in the questions clear and simple?
- *Are the questions open-ended to allow for deeper understanding and for stories to surface?
- *Did we avoid leading questions? Our guests should not believe there is only one correct response.
- *Did we avoid complex-multistep questions?
- *Did we avoid questions that are based on assumptions?
- *Do the questions encourage the guest to speak from their own lived experience?
